

Change

Fall
2011

Environment, Sustainability & Society Lectures

September 15, 2011

The Fish Doesn't Know It's in Water: Environmental Awareness in the Maritimes, 1970-2010

Silver Donald Cameron, The Green Interview, Halifax

September 22, 2011

Exploring Sustainable Development in Time: Narratives of Human Interaction and Impacts in Wetlands

Matthew Hatvany, Département de géographie, Université Laval

September 29, 2011

Film & panel discussion: No Impact Man (2009)

October 6, 2011

"The Envy of the World"? Canada's History through National Parks

Claire Campbell, Department of History and Canadian Studies Program, Dalhousie University

October 13, 2011

Green Week Lecture

Presented by the Dalhousie Student Union Sustainability Office

October 20, 2011

Film & panel discussion: Radiant City (2006)

All lectures begin at 7:00 pm, in the Ondaatje Auditorium of the Marion McCain Building, 6135 University Avenue, Halifax. Free admission. Limited seating.

October 27, 2011

Shotgun Approach: A Passive House to Rebuild New Orleans

Paul Dowsett, sustainable.TO Architecture + Building, Toronto

November 3, 2011

Sharks and the Future of the Oceans

Boris Worm, Department of Biology, Dalhousie University

November 10, 2011

No lecture - Fall Study Break

November 17, 2011

Architecture for Sustainable Communities

Stephen Teeple, Teeple Architects, Toronto

November 24, 2011

Water: The Fate of Our Most Precious Resource

Marq de Villiers, Eagle Head, Nova Scotia
co-sponsored by Project Vital, School of Journalism,
University of King's College

December 1, 2011

Leadership, Ethics and Sustainability: Lessons From the Arctic

Mary Simon, Inuit Tapiriit Kanatami, Ottawa